Chapter 3
The world called virtual space began to feel even more real than the actual world
A new world was born within the digital one
The Internet has evolved at an exponential rate
Here's a short tale of what might happen in the future
I am Shizuku. Within this world, I act as a girl.
In other words, I'm actually a guy.
I wonder what's keeping Corvo.
We were supposed to meet in the market right?
Meeting outside the lobby was a bad idea

So I want to go with you for a bit
Wanna shop?
This may be the first time I've checked out the shops
Whoa! There's a variety!
That's because you prefer your own items to the commercial ones
But isn't it more fun to make your own items?
I've always had trouble with that sort of thing
You'd be the authority on that
I love designing things!
What are you getting today?
Actually I'm not getting anything for myself ♥
